PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Selected Participant, Performance Assessment in Higher Education, Harvard Graduate School of Education, Cambridge, Massachusetts, November 1-3, 2009.

The program brings together faculty experts and leading practitioners with considerable experience developing, implementing, and sustaining campus-based assessment processes. Participants learn about a wide cross-section of assessment perspectives and approaches. The program details key theory, research and practice in performance measurement and institutional assessment.

Selected Participant, Summer Institute for Women in Higher Education Administration, Sponsored by Bryn Mawr College and Higher Education Resource Services, June 25–July 21, 2006.

Women faculty and administrators participate in this residential program that aims to prepare and advance women for leadership in higher education administration. Curricula provide participants with a comprehensive institutional perspective on current issues in higher education (access, accountability, affordability), as well as enhancing their skills and knowledge pertinent to the management and governance of colleges and universities.
